

Speaker's Bureau

Hospice of Central PA has a Speaker's Bureau that includes trained speakers who welcome the opportunity to talk about a variety of topics pertinent to hospice in the community.

Our staff and volunteers can share their expertise with your organization, business, school, church, or professional group. We will tailor the presentation, workshop, panel discussion or health fair exhibit to your group's needs. No group is too large or too small. There is no fee for any of our speakers.
